Blue Mountain Shadows

The Magazine of San Juan County History

The Blue Mountain Shadows Legacy

First published in 1986 by the San Juan County Historical Commission, Blue Mountain Shadows magazine is now entering its 20th year. A winner of five historical awards—including the Outstanding Merit Award from the Utah Humanities Council—the magazine focuses on the history and culture of the Anglo, Ute, Hispanic and Navajo people of the Four Corners Area, principally San Juan County, Utah.

Blue Mountain Shadows is published twice yearly, with thirty-four issues printed to date. Volumes 1-5 are no longer available but can be found at www.bluemountainshadows.org. Purchase issues at San Juan County businesses: BLANDING-Connected Technologies, San Juan Pharmacy, Purple Sage Trading Post, Clark's Market, Enchanted Treasures, Edge of the Cedars Museum, Blanding Library, Blanding Visitor's Center. BLUFF-Recapture Lodge, Twin Rocks Trading Post. MONTICELLO-Monticello Library, San Juan Record, Monticello Merc., Monticello Visitor's Center. Out of County: MOAB-Back and Beyond, Times-Independent, and Arches Bookstore. CORTEZ: Books Bookstore. Issues are also available by mail (see order form).
